

SPRING 2018

DIVERSITY SYMPOSIUM

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 2018 || 10:00 AM - 3:30 PM || MORSE HALL

10:00

CRITICAL SHIFTS: EQUALITY TO EQUITY

Why is it important to shift from an equality model to one of equity? A discussion about real world scenarios will be used to facilitate the conversation.

11:15

3D INTERCULTURAL CONFLICT STYLE (ICS)

This interactive session will simulate the ICS, an assessment tool for improving communication, resolving conflicts, and solving problems across cultural differences.

12:30

LUNCH BY THEMED TABLE

Compassion Fatigue: What Happens When You Stop Caring?

What do you do when it is easier to become apathetic to the issues surrounding us rather than take action? This discussion will talk about how to manage stress so we can continue to be advocates.

Is "All Lives Matter" Problematic?

There are a lot of proponents of the "All Lives Matter" movement--is this problematic? Can "All Lives Matter" be exclusionary?

Asian Americans: The Model Minority?

Asian Americans are often called the "model minority" but what are the unintended consequences of this seemingly complimentary title?

#TimesUp

Oprah declared during this year's Golden Globes that women have been ignored and subdued for way too long. Come discuss #TimesUp and current issues directly impacting women.

2:00

FRAMING ISSUES AND MEDIA COVERAGE

Belief systems, which inform policy and law, can contribute to and perpetuate injustice. Media coverage and how issues are framed will be covered.

Lunch will be Thai food!
